PARK TRAIL DESCRIPTIONS

From scenic vistas to beautiful overlooks, hiking trails at West Virginia's state parks and forests lead to breathtaking mountain scenery. Along the way create lasting memories but remember to leave no trace behind in Almost Heaven.

 = Hiking  = Horseback Riding  = Mountain Bike Riding  = Cross-Country Skiing

CONNECTOR TRAIL

Trailhead located along service road where Twin Hollow Trail crosses. This is a short and steep trail connecting Twin Hollow Trail to Ridge Top Trail.

Distance: 50 yards

Walking time: 5 minutes

Difficulty: Moderate

Blaze:

ISLAND-IN-THE-SKY TRAIL

Trailhead at Grist Mill and at small parking lot in the sharp curve along the road to Boley Lake. Trail is moderately difficult and mostly uphill if starting at the Grist Mill; easy and mostly level if starting at the sharp curve. High cliff areas with beautiful vistas.

NOTE: High cliff areas. Be careful.

Distance: 0.5 mile

Walking time: 30-45 minutes

Difficulty: easy to difficult

Blaze:

LAKE VIEW TRAIL

Easy, mostly level loop trail around Boley Lake. Trailhead at Boley Lake parking lot or at gate above Grist Mill. Spur from Grist Mill gate 0.5 mile long, uphill and moderately difficult.

Distance: 1-mile loop

Walking time: 1 hour

Difficulty: easy to moderate

Blaze:

MANNS CREEK GORGE TRAIL

Not a loop trail - return along same trail or walk the Camp Washington Carver Road back to the campground. Trailheads: across from Campsite 26 and at the first parking area at Camp Washington Carver. Scenic vistas.

Distance: 2 miles one way

Walking time: 5 minutes - 1 1/2 -2 hours

Difficulty: moderate to difficult

Blaze:

MOUNTAIN HEATH TRAIL

Numbered posts and a booklet (available at park headquarters) lead the hiker around this loop self-guided trail. Trailhead is 300 yards north of the main intersection on the road leading to the Mann's Creek Picnic Area. Parking spur on right side of road, trailhead on the left. Short trail leading to a natural arch leads off from the right side of the parking spur. No blazes.

Distance: .25 mile

Walking time:

Difficulty: moderate

Blaze: none

NARROW GAUGE TRAIL

Not a loop trail - hikers must return along the same trail or via park roads. Easy, gentle grade; follows bed of Mann's Creek Railway that connected Clifftop with Sewell until its closure in 1956. Railroad ties, telegraph poles, and other remnants of the old railway are still evident. Trailheads: service road between campground and economy cabins and on Sewell Road approximately .75 mile below Cabin 13. Mountain bikes permitted; carry bikes around several difficult sections of the trail.

Distance: 2.25 miles

Walking time: 1.5 hours one way

Difficulty: moderate to difficult

Blaze:

NORTH SLOPE TRAIL

Trailhead is shared with Narrow Gauge Trail and is located next to Mann's Creek Bridge on service road. First half of trail from trailhead is level and follows Mann's Creek. Second half of trail is VERY steep and a difficult climb connecting to the Ridge Top Trail.

Distance: 0.5 mile one way

Walking time: 45 minutes to 1 hour

Difficulty: moderate to difficult

Blaze:

OLD POND TRAIL
