From scenic vistas to beautiful overlooks, hiking trails at West Virginia’s state parks and forests lead to breathtaking mountain scenery. Along the way create lasting memories but remember to leave no trace behind in Almost Heaven.

- = Hiking
- = Horseback Riding
- = Mountain Bike Riding
- = Cross Country Skiing

OLD FERRY ROAD

A short section of Old Ferry Road is on state property. The road was used by Confederate Gen. Floyd during his retreat off the mountain to Carnifex Ferry.

Distance: 0.3 Miles
Difficulty: Moderate
Blaze: ●

PATTERSON TRAIL

This trail forms a loop around the park and can be accessed from several locations. Highlights include three overlooks of the Gauley River.

Distance: 2 miles
Difficulty: Easy to moderate
Blaze: ●

PIERSON HOLLOW TRAIL

This trail branches off the Patterson Trail across the road from the Patterson House Museum. The trail passes through a stand of mature trees before ending.

Distance: 0.6 miles
Difficulty: Easy to moderate
Blaze: ●

NOTE: Metal detectors are prohibited. Artillery projectiles are still present on battlefield. If any are found, please notify park staff. Do not handle.

ADVENTURE AWAITSThis code will take you to the West Virginia State Parks Interactive Vacation Guide.