

The Nature Center at Kanawha State Forest is open year round, and showcases the park's natural and cultural history. Join a park naturalist for a guided hike, educational program, or a craft to learn more about the park's plant, wildlife, and history. Interpretive programming and special events are offered year round.