Friday, June 13th.

- Nature Center Hours: 8:00am. – 6:00pm.

7:00am. "Bird Songs with Dad" Shelter 4 – Waking up early with dew still on the grass and the sky just starting to stretch into morning, there's something special about birding with Dad. It is the quiet moments between the calls of warblers and woodpeckers those in-between spaces where stories are shared, jokes are cracked, and silence is comfortable.

8:30am. – 6:00pm. "Father's Day Card Craft" Nature Center – This craft will be offered during operational hours.

9:00am. "Tracking with Dad" Self-Guided Twin Oaks Trail – Following animal tracks with Dad is like stepping into a story, one written in paw prints, broken twigs, and the hush of the woods. My Dad would kneel down beside a print in the mud, eyes sharp, grin wide, and say, "Coyote, maybe last night." Just like that the forest came alive.

11:00am. "Rewind with Dad" Pioneer Farm – Taking this guided walk to the old Pioneer Farm will feel as though time has cracked open. The sound of the gravel moving underneath your feet, the smell of summer blooms and earth, it was a world built by calloused hands and early mornings. Imagine a time where chickens clucked freely, a blacksmith hammered away in rhythm and this log cabin stood sturdy with stories in every beam.

1:00pm. – "Nature Journaling with Dad" Twin Oaks Trail – Swap out the neckties for notebooks and head outdoors for a special bonding experience between dads and their little explorers. Observe birds, and trees together, sketch leaves, flowers, or furry friends you may see. All materials provided. No Art Skill Needed – just curiosity!

3:00pm. – "Talk Turkey with Dad" Outside Patio of Nature Center – This Father's Day weekend, gobble up some quality time with dad in the great outdoors! Join us for a feathered family adventure all about the Eastern Wild Turkey, one of the most fascinating birds in the forest.
